BUSINESS PERFORMANCE

Sales development and profitability

The stated sales revenues amounting to  $k \in 3,553$  (previous year:  $k \in 3,402$ ) mainly result from license fee settlements. The increase compared to the previous year results from the increase in sales revenues at the subsidiaries.

The personnel expenses amounting to  $k \in 1,660$  (previous year:  $k \in 964$ ) increased by  $k \in 696$ . The change results from the adjustment of Executive Board salaries and the election of a further Executive Board member, Mag. Alexandra Rester. Pension provisions also increased by  $k \in 96$ .

The other operating expenses amounted to  $k \in 4,129$  (previous year:  $k \in 3,398$ ). They mainly comprise expenses for services provided by Group subsidiaries amounting to  $k \in 1,362$  (previous year:  $k \in 1,218$ ), marketing expenses amounting to  $k \in 985$  (previous year:  $k \in 867$ ), consulting expenses amounting to  $k \in 460$  (previous year:  $k \in 385$ ), expenses for rent and leasing  $k \in 255$  (previous year:  $k \in 207$ ), and expenses for insurance and contributions in the amount of  $k \in 243$  (previous year:  $k \in 191$ ).

The operating result (see P&L account 6. Subtotal from items 1 to 5) amounts to  $k \in -2,152$  (previous year:  $k \in 650$ ).

In the business year, dividend income amounting to  $k \in 4,000$  (previous year:  $k \in 2,500$ ) from subsidiaries to the company was recognized, of which a distribution from RATH GmbH, Germany, amounting to  $k \in 3,500$  (previous year:  $k \in 2,000$ ). Interest income from loans to affiliated companies amounted to  $k \in 790$  (previous year:  $k \in 739$ ). The income from the write-up of financial assets amounting to  $k \in 18$  (previous year:  $k \in 5,078$ ) relates to the value adjustment of securities in the current business year and the subsidiary Rath Inc., USA, in the previous year. In the previous year, the expenses from financial assets related to the depreciation of the investment of RATH Ukrajina TOW, Ukraine, in the amount of  $k \in 39$  and the loans to RATH Group S.DE R.L.DE C.V, Mexico in the amount of  $k \in 339$ ).

The interest expenses include interest for the promissory note bonds amounting to  $k \in 1,896$  (previous year:  $k \in 868$ ).

The Company closes the books at an annual surplus amounting to k€ 1,379 (previous year: k€ 7,406).

Assets and financial position

The balance sheet total of RATH AG increases to  $k \in 84,427$  (previous year:  $k \in 77,775$ ). The main reasons for this are the increase in loans to affiliated companies and the increase in current receivables from affiliated companies.

Loans decreased on the one hand by  $k \in 2,395$  in the business year and increased on the other hand due to a loan commitment to RATH Inc. USA amounting to  $k \in 3,619$  and RATH LLC, USA amounting to  $k \in 2,714$ . The loan was granted to both subsidiaries on and was also effective as of December 21, 2023. Due to the binding commitment to grant the loan and the fact that the loan amounts were paid out only inJanuary 2024, the loans granted were capitalized as non-current loans under financial assets, and the corresponding current financial liabilities were recognized as financial liabilities to affiliated companies.

As in the previous year, a phase-congruent recognition of dividends on short-term receivables from affiliated companies took place, leading to a recognized dividend receivable from Rath GmbH that was  $k \in 1,500$  higher (previous year:  $k \in 2,000$ ), as well as higher onward charges to the subsidiaries at year-end.

k€ 4,000 of the promissory note bonds must be repaid in September 2024 and were therefore reclassified as current liabilities.

The capital ratio amounts to 36 % (previous year: 40 %).

The operating cash flow, determined in accordance with AFRAC Statement 36 "Cash Flow Statement (UGB)" (June 2020), amounted to  $k \in -1,502$  for the business year (previous year:  $k \in -3,896$ ) and resulted on the one hand from the increase in working capital and on the other hand from the poorer result compared to the previous year. Cash flow from investing activities amounted to  $k \in 2,511$  (previous year:  $k \in 7,287$ ) and resulted primarily from the repayment of loans granted by RATH AG, a shareholder contribution to Rath Business Services GmbH ( $k \in 350$ ), and a dividend received in the amount of  $k \in 500$ . The cash flow from investing activities amounts to  $k \in -3,331$  (previous year:  $k \in 7,695$ ) and results from the distribution in the amount of  $k \in 1,950$  (previous year 495), as well as current interest payments.

In the previous year, a dividend of  $\in$  1.30 per share, i.e. a total of k $\in$  1,950 was distributed and the remaining amount carried forward to new account. For the business year 2023, a dividend distribution amounting to  $\in$  1.00 per share, i.e. a total of k $\in$  1,500, from the net profit is proposed and the remaining amount carried forward to new account.

The share price changed in the past year from  $\le$  26.2 on 31 December 2022 to  $\le$  27.2 on 31 December 2023. The market capitalization thus amounted to k $\le$  40,800 at the end of the year (previous year: k $\le$  39,300).

OUTLOOK REPORT

As the Company is a holding company, its performance relies solely on the revenues of its subsidiaries and their billable services. The International Monetary Fund (IMF) expects global economic output to move sideways in 2024, with the global economy set to grow slightly only in 2025. Economic output in the eurozone as a whole is expected to grow by 0.9 % in 2024. For Germany, an increase in gross domestic product (GDP) amounting to 0.5%, and for the USA an increase amounting to 2.1 % is predicted. For Austria, the Austrian Institute of Economic Research (WIFO) expects the gross domestic product (GDP) to increase by 0.9 % in 2024.

Europe is in a state of flux, governments are in the process of adapting to future energy sources, possible political changes and, in connection with this, shifting international trade relations. We anticipate a sideways movement in sales and a slight deterioration in our profitability for 2024.

In February 2024, the RATH Group was able to participate in a joint venture in India; together with our new Indian partner, we will set up a production facility in India and serve both the Indian market and RATH's international customer base. RATH's investment in India was awarded based on the fact that India is one of the largest growth markets of the future and offers an excellent environment for energy-intensive industrial companies.

RISK REPORT

The internal control system (ICS) is secured via a holistic quality management. There, signature regulations are defined on the basis of a dual-control principle as well as separation of critical functions in all areas of the Company. The risk management system ensures that risks are regularly analyzed and assessed. This is the only way to be sure that they can be detected at an early stage, and countermeasures can be implemented quickly should a risk arise. Special risks can arise due to the financing functions of the holding company. For that reason, exchange rates and the development of interest rates are being continually monitored.

RESEARCH REPORT

The RATH Group is organized by a central Research and Development department with the priority areas Innovation, Development, Process Optimization, and Materials Science. Intensive and sustainable research and development are important elements of our strategy as a premium supplier. Topics and projects in the area of research, technology and innovation are of the highest priority and mainstays of our company success, and therefore crucial for a sustainable competitive advantage and growth.

In 2023, the following projects were successfully implemented:

- Development of a new Altra fiber for an application temperature of up to 1,500 °C.
- Preparation of continuous fiber technology. The commissioning and large-scale implementation of a new production line at the Mönchengladbach plant is planned for the second half of 2024.
- Further developments in the area of hot-gas filters
- Development of two products for use in the forehearth area

IMPORTANT CHARACTERISTICS OF THE INTERNAL CONTROL SYSTEM

The internal control system (ICS) defines all processes for securing economic efficiency and correctness of the accounting. It reduces the error rate of transactions, protects assets from losses by damages and fraud, and ensures conformity of business procedures with the Articles of Association and current legislation. The control environment of the accounting process is marked by a clear structural and process organization, with persons assigned uniquely to the individual functions (e.g. in Financial Accounting and Controlling).

The employees involved in the accounting process fulfill the professional requirements. SAP is used in accounting. The rules of procedure refer, among other things, to the mandatory compliance with terms of the Management Handbook and define a list of business cases that require approval by the Company's management. The RATH AG Management Handbook contains, among other things, the information and regulations necessary for the accounting process, such as the reporting guidelines, accounting and valuation rules, or IT guidelines. A standardized monthly management reporting system includes all individual companies consolidated in the RATH Group.

The Audit Committee is regularly informed about the internal control system and monitors the accounting process.

CORPORATE SOCIAL RESPONSIBILITY

The Supervisory Board and Management of the RATH Group attach high value to sustainable corporate governance. Thus, strategic decision-making as well as operational leadership are influenced by ecological, economic and social factors alike.

The most important cross-company strategies for sustainability include RATH's brand and product development strategies, innovations, and production procedures to optimize the economy and ecology during the production process as well as in the product. In addition, the resource-conserving use of energy and water is a key issue at RATH.

Reporting of important basic data of the Group companies was continued in the business year 2023. Our colleagues are the most important asset for a positive, sustainable development of our company's success. Open, appreciative dealings with colleagues of all sectors beyond function levels are the foundation of our company. During the business year 2023, RATH AG had an average of 6 (previous year: 4) employees on the payroll.

The proportion of women in the RATH AG workforce amounts to around 50 % (previous year: 40 %), 'the proportion in the Supervisory Board to 20 % (previous year: 20 %).

A. ACCOUNTING AND VALUATION PRINCIPLES

1. GENERAL PRINCIPLES

The valid version of the annual financial statements was created taking into account the Austrian Commercial Code (UGB) and the principles of proper bookkeeping as well as the general standard of presenting a maximally faithful image of the asset, financial and earnings position of the Company. The Company is to be classified as a large corporation pursuant to § 221 of the Austrian Commercial Code (UGB).

The principle of completeness was adhered to during creation of these annual financial statements. The P&L account was prepared according to the total cost method. The accounting and valuation methods applied before have been maintained.

RATH Aktiengesellschaft ("RATH AG"), as the parent company of the Group, prepares the consolidated financial statements for the smallest and largest group of companies published at the Vienna Commercial Register Court under FN 83203 h. The legal relationships with the affiliated companies as of the balance sheet date are shown in Supplement 2 to the Notes.

For the valuation of individual assets and liabilities, the principle of individual assessment and a continuation of the Company were assumed. Thus, the prudence principle was complied with by reporting only revenues realized on the reporting date. All foreseeable risks and imminent losses were taken into consideration.

Estimates are based on a prudent assessment. If and insofar as statistically ascertainable experience from similar circumstances exists, the Company has taken this into account in its estimates.

2. FIXED ASSETS

a) Intangible assets

Intangible assets acquired are assessed at acquisition cost less scheduled depreciations. The scheduled depreciation is applied using the straight-line method. The following useful life is used as a basis for the scheduled depreciation:

> INTANGIBLE ASSETS YEARS Software and licenses

Additions in the first half of the business year are depreciated at the full annual rate; additions in the second half at one-half the annual rate. Low-value assets (individual acquisition value of up to € 1,000 (previous year € 800) are capitalized in the year of addition and immediately depreciated. Unscheduled depreciations take place if the impairments are expected to be permanent. As in the previous year, no unscheduled depreciations took place in the business year.

b) Tangible assets (property, plant and equipment)

Tangible assets (property, plant and equipment) are assessed at acquisition cost less scheduled linear depreciations. The scheduled depreciations are performed on the basis of the following depreciation rates:

Other assets, company and business equipment

TANGIBLE ASSETS
Other assets, company and business equipment

Additions in the first half of the business year are depreciated at the full annual rate; additions in the second half at one-half the annual rate. Low-value assets (individual acquisition value of up to  $\in$  1,000 (previous year  $\in$  800) are capitalized in the year of addition and immediately depreciated. Unscheduled depreciations take place if the impairments are expected to be permanent. As in the previous year, no unscheduled depreciations took place in the business year.

Investment grants are presented using the gross method.

c) Financial assets

Shares of affiliated companies are as a matter of principle assessed at acquisition cost, if appropriate less depreciations in consideration of impairments.

If there are indications of a permanent significant decrease in fair value, the investments are valued.

If and insofar as the carrying amounts of the shares are not sufficiently covered by the pro rata stockholders' equity of the subsidiaries, a valuation is carried out on the basis of discounted net cash surpluses. Here, estimates must be made under uncertainty, especially with regard to future cash surpluses. A change in the overall economic, industry or company situation in the future may lead to a reduction or an increase in the planned cash surpluses and thus to impairments or reversals of impairment losses, respectively.

The valuations are based on a net present value-oriented method based on the expected development, in which the weighted average cost of capital (WACC) is used. These are equivalent to the weighted average return on equity and borrowed capital. The weighting of return on equity and borrowed capital is based on the capital structure of the respective investment. Against the background of the currently volatile financial market environment, the development of the cost of capital represents an uncertainty and is continuously monitored.

Loans and investment securities are reported at acquisition cost, reduced by depreciations to reflect impairment where applicable. Unscheduled depreciations take place if the impairments are expected to be permanent. As in the previous year, no unscheduled depreciations took place in the business year.

Loans denominated in foreign currencies are recognized at the lower of cost or the foreign exchange buying rate at the balance sheet date.

Unscheduled depreciations take place if the value at the reporting date is lower than their carrying amount is. In the business year, unscheduled depreciations were made on investments amounting to  $\in$  0 (previous year:  $k \in 377$ ).

d) Write-ups to fixed assets

Write-ups to the fixed assets are made when the reasons for the unscheduled depreciation have ceased to apply. The appreciation is made to a maximum of the net carrying amount resulting from consideration of the normal depreciations that would have had to be carried out in the meantime.

The income from the write-up of financial assets amounting to  $\le$  18 261 (previous year: k $\le$  5,078 Rath Inc., USA) relate to the value adjustment to securities.

3. CASH BALANCE, BANK BALANCES

Bank balances denominated in foreign currency are reported at the exchange rate on the balance sheet date.

4. RECEIVABLES AND OTHER ASSETS

Receivables and other assets are assessed at nominal value unless, in case of foreseeable individual risks, the lower applicable value is recognized. Receivables denominated in foreign currencies are recognized at the lower of cost or the foreign exchange buying rate at the balance sheet date.

5. PREPAID EXPENSES AND DEFERRED CHARGES

Accruals and deferrals include expenses prior to the reporting date if and insofar as they represent expenses for a specific period after that date.

6. DEFERRED TAX ASSETS

Deferred tax assets are recognized for differences between the carrying amounts of assets, provisions, liabilities and prepaid expenses and deferred charges under corporate law and the tax base of assets, accruals and deferrals, liabilities and prepaid expenses, which are expected to be reduced in subsequent financial years. Deferred taxes are measured at a tax rate of 23 % for differences expected to be utilized from 2024 and onwards (previous year: 24 % for differences expected to be utilized in 2023 and 23 % for differences expected to be utilized in 2024 and onwards). The valuation is carried out without taking discounting into account. In addition, deferred tax assets are recognized for existing fiscal loss carry-forwards to the extent that sufficient deferred fiscal liabilities are available or there are convincing substantial indications that sufficient taxable earnings will be available in future to utilize these loss carry-forwards. In addition to appropriate tax planning, the consistently positive results of past periods are also used as substantial indications. Deferred tax assets and deferred tax liabilities were netted, since it was legally possible to offset actual tax refund claims against actual tax liabilities.

7. ACCRUALS AND PROVISIONS

a) Accruals and provisions for pensions

Accruals and provisions for pensions are calculated on the basis of AFRAC Opinion 27 "Provisions for pensions, severance payments, anniversary bonuses and comparable non-current obligations under the Austrian Commercial Code" (June 2022) using actuarial principles in accordance with the projected unit credit method, using the biometric tables AVÖ 2018-P and an interest rate of 3.37 % (previous year: 3.96 %) and with a retirement age according to AVÖ-2018-P. The calculation was based on a salary trend of 3.0 % (previous year: 3.0 %) and a fluctuation of 0 % (previous year: 0 %). The accumulation period begins at the time when the employee's work performance first gives rise to benefits under the plan and continues until the date of full vesting.

The discount rate used is a key date interest rate. The key date interest rate is the interest rate at which a company with a high credit rating can obtain debt capital on the reporting date that is essentially equivalent to the average remaining term of the obligations. The interest expenditures relating to pension provisions and the effects of a change in the interest rate are reported under personnel expenses.

The change in the accrual recognized in the amount of  $\in$  1,303,990 (previous year:  $k\in$  1,208) results from an allocation in the amount of  $\in$  235,649 and a utilization of  $\in$  139,438 (previous year:  $k\in$  155).

In the previous year, one entitled person died, and these entitlements were not transferred. The accrual was therefore reversed in the previous year in the amount of  $\in$  747,605.

b) Accruals and provisions for entitlements to severance payments

The accruals and provisions for severance payments are calculated in accordance with AFRAC Opinion 27 "Provisions for pensions, severance payments, anniversary bonuses and comparable non-current obligations under the Austrian Commercial Code" (June 2022) in accordance with recognized actuarial principles using the projected unit credit method based on the biometric tables AVÖ 2018-P with an interest rate of 3.49 % (previous year: 4.16 %). The retirement age is set at the ASVG (Austrian General Social Security Act) retirement age in accordance with the transitional provisions of the Budget Accompanying Act of 2003. The calculation was based on a salary trend of 3.0 % (previous year: 3.0 %) and, as in the previous year, no fluctuation was assumed. The accumulation period begins at the time when the employee's work performance first gives rise to benefits under the plan and continues until the date of full vesting.

The discount rate used is a key date interest rate. The key date interest rate is the interest rate at which a company with a high credit rating can obtain debt capital on the reporting date that is essentially equivalent to the average remaining term of the obligations. The interest expenditures relating to severance provisions and the effects of a change in the interest rate are reported under the relevant personnel expenses. The change amounting to  $\in$  8,506 (previous year: k $\in$  -3) is therefore included in the salary expenditures. As in the previous year, there were no disbursements in the business year.

c) Accruals and provisions for anniversaries

The calculation of provisions for anniversary bonuses is based on the same methodology as for entitlements to severance payments, with an interest rate of 3.44 % (previous year: 4.11 %) and a retirement age according to ASVG with the transitional provisions of the 2003 Budget Accompanying Act. The calculation was based on a salary trend of 3.0 % (previous year: 3.0 %) and a fluctuation of 5 % (previous year: 5 %). As in the previous year, there were no disbursements in the business year.

d) Miscellaneous other accruals and provisions

All foreseeable risks and uncertain liabilities were taken into account in the miscellaneous other accruals and provisions according to the prudence principle to the amount of miscellaneous other liabilities that are required according to reasonable entrepreneurial judgment. The other accruals and provisions were formed to the amount of the settlement, which was estimated as best as possible.

8. LIABILITIES

Liabilities are recognized at the settlement amount, taking into account the principle of prudence.

9. CURRENCY CONVERSION

As in the previous year, the foreign-currency liabilities are assessed at the rate applying on the day of the transaction or the lower currency buying rate on the balance sheet date. As in the previous year, the foreign-currency obligations are assessed at the rate applying on the day of the transaction or the higher currency selling rate on the balance sheet date.

Report on the annual financial statements

AUDIT PART

We have audited the annual financial statements of Rath Aktiengesellschaft, Vienna, consisting of the balance sheet as of December 31, 2023, the P&L account for the business year ending on this reporting date, and the Notes.

According to our assessment, the annexed annual financial statements corresponds to the legal provisions and give a maximally true and fair view of the assets and financial position of the Company as of December 31, 2023, as well as of the profitability of the Company for the business year ending on this reporting date, in agreement with the provisions of Austrian corporate law.

BASIS FOR THE AUDIT OPINION

We conducted our audit in accordance with EU Regulation Nr. 537/2014 (hereinafter EU-Reg) and generally accepted Austrian standards for the auditing of financial statement. These principles require application of the International Standards on Auditing (ISA). According to these provisions and standards, our responsibilities are described further in the section of our Auditor's Certificate entitled Responsibilities of the annual auditor for the auditing of the annual financial statements". We are independent of the Company, in agreement with the provisions of Austrian corporate and professional law, and we have fulfilled our other professional obligations in agreement with these requirements. We believe that the documentary audit evidence we obtained for auditing up to the date of the auditor's certificate is sufficient and appropriate to serve as a basis for our Audit Opinion at this date.

PARTICULARLY IMPORTANT AUDITING MATTERS

Particularly important auditing matters are circumstances that were most important for our audit of the annual financial statements from the business year according to our best judgment. These circumstances were considered in connection with our audit of the annual financial statements as a whole and during the formation of our Audit Opinion, and we do not provide a separate Audit Opinion on these circumstances.

We have structured our presentation of these particularly important auditing matters as follows:

- Facts
- Audit procedure and findings
- Reference to further information

RECOVERABILITY OF SHARES IN AFFILIATED COMPANIES AND LOANS TO AFFILIATED COMPANIES

Facts

The shares in affiliated companies to the amount of  $\le$  26,027,701 (previous year:  $k \le$  25,678) as well as loans to affiliated companies totaling  $\le$  29,319,970 (previous year:  $k \le$  25,380) represent 66 % (previous year: 66 %) of the balance sheet total of Rath Aktiengesellschaft, Vienna, as of December 31, 2023.

Pursuant to § 204 (2) of the Austrian Commercial Code (UGB), shares in affiliated companies and loans to affiliated companies are to be written down on an unscheduled basis to the lower value to be attributed on the reporting date in the event of an expected permanent impairment, whereby a depreciation may also be made if the reduction in value is not expected to be permanent. An reversal of impairment pursuant to § 208 (1) of the Austrian Commercial Code (UGB) must be carried out if, in the case of shares in affiliated companies or loans to affiliated companies that have been written down on an unscheduled basis, it becomes apparent in a later business year that the reasons for the unscheduled depreciation no longer exist. The write-up is to be made to the extent of the increase in value.

The Executive Board carries out an impairment test for shares in affiliated companies and loans to affiliated companies if there are, or cease to be, indications of permanent impairment. If and insofar as the carrying amount of the shares in affiliated companies is not sufficiently covered by the prorated stockholders' equity, or for the purpose of determining write-ups, a valuation is carried out on the basis of a discounted cash flow method. The determination of the fair value of the financial assets incorporates various valuation-relevant assumptions with regard to the future cash flows expected by the legal representatives ("free cash flows", such as assumptions on the development of sales and profitability, as well as the growth rate for the perpetual annuity), which are associated with considerable estimation uncertainties and discretion. The capitalization interest rate (WACC) to be used to determine the fair value is a significant input parameter and is also to be classified as highly discretionary.

Due to these estimation uncertainties, there is a risk for the financial statements that the shares in affiliated companies or the loans to affiliated companies are not recoverable. The recoverability of shares in affiliated companies and loans to affiliated companies is therefore considered to be a key audit matter.

• Audit procedure and findings

We assessed the impairment tests performed by the Executive Board on shares in affiliated companies and loans to affiliated companies to determine whether they appropriately identified a potential need for impairment or write-ups.

To test the Company's recoverability assessment, we assessed in particular the valuation model itself and dealt with the key value drivers of the fair values.

The expected future cash flows were derived from the budget approved by the management and adopted by the Supervisory Board.

With the involvement of our internal valuation specialists, we examined whether the selected valuation method complies with recognized valuation principles and assessed the parameters used by the company (planned cash flows, growth rates and discount rates) to determine whether they are plausible and appropriate.

The valuation model used by the company is suitable for testing the recoverability of shares in affiliated companies and loans to affiliated companies. The assumptions and valuation parameters underlying the determination of the fair value and the associated disclosures are plausible and appropriate.

FURTHER INFORMATION

The legal representatives are responsible for the further information. The further information comprises all the information in the annual report, excluding the annual financial statements, the management report and the Auditor's Certificate.

Our Audit Opinion on the annual financial statements does not cover such other information, and we do not express any form of assurance conclusion thereon.

In the context of our auditing of the annual financial statements, we have a responsibility to read this other information and, in doing so, consider whether the other information is materially inconsistent with the annual financial statements or our knowledge obtained in the audit or otherwise appears to be misstated.

If, based on our work performed on the other information obtained before the date of this Auditor's Certificate, we conclude that there has been a material misstatement of such other information, we are required to report that fact. We have nothing to report in this respect.

RESPONSIBILITIES OF THE LEGAL REPRESENTATIVES AND OF THE AUDIT COMMITTEE FOR THE ANNUAL FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

The legal representatives are responsible for the creation of the annual financial statements and for making sure that this provides a maximally faithful representation of the Company's asset, financial and earnings position and profitability in agreement with the provisions of Austrian corporate law. Furthermore, the legal representatives are responsible for the internal controls that they deem necessary to enable preparation of annual financial statements free of significant – fraudulent or accidental – misrepresentations.

During the creation of the annual financial statements, the legal representatives are responsible for assessing the capability of the Company to continue their company activities, to specify circumstances in connection with the continuation of their company activities – if and insofar as relevant – and to apply the accounting principle of the continuation of company activities; unless the legal representatives intend to either liquidate the Company or to cease its activities, or do not have any realistic alternatives to this.

The Audit Committee is responsible for monitoring the accounting process of the Company.

RESPONSIBILITIES OF THE ANNUAL AUDITOR FOR THE AUDITING OF THE ANNUAL FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Our goals are to obtain sufficient certainty as to whether the annual financial statements as a whole are free of significant – fraudulent or accidental – misrepresentations, and to provide an Auditor's Certificate that contains our Audit Opinion. Sufficient certainty is a high level of certainty, but not a guarantee that an audit executed in agreement with the EU-Reg and the Austrian principles of proper auditing, which mandate application of the ISA, will always discover a significant misrepresentation if such exists.

Misrepresentations may result from fraudulent acts or mistakes and are to be considered significant if it can be expected that they – individually or altogether – will influence the economic decisions of users made on the basis of these annual financial statements.

As a part of an audit in agreement with the EU-Reg and the Austrian principles of proper auditing, which mandate application of the ISA, we exercise discretion according to our best judgment during the entire audit and maintain a critical approach.

Furthermore, the following applies:

• We identify and assess risks of significant – fraudulent or accidental – misrepresentations in the statement, plan auditing measures as a response to these risks, execute them and obtain documentary audit evidence that is sufficient and suitable to serve as a basis for our Audit Opinion. The risk that significant misrepresentations resulting from fraudulent actions not being discovered is greater than a risk of misrepresentations resulting from mistakes, because fraudulent actions may comprise collusive collaborations, falsifications, intended incompleteness, misleading representations or the bypassing of internal controls.

- We gain an understanding of the internal control system relevant for the audit in order to plan auditing measures that are appropriate under the specified circumstances, however not with the goal of submitting an Audit Opinion of the effectiveness of the Company's internal control system.
- We assess the appropriateness of the accounting methods applied by the legal representatives as well as the plausibility of the estimated values in the accounting presented by the legal representatives and related information.
- We draw conclusions about the appropriateness of the application of the accounting principles for the continuation of operations by the legal representatives as well as on the basis of the obtained documentary audit evidence as to whether there is a significant discrepancy in connection with events or circumstances that may cause significant doubt in the ability of the Company to continue its operations. If we come to the conclusion that a significant uncertainty exists, we are obligated to point in our Auditor's Certificate to the relevant information in the annual financial statements or, if this is inappropriate, to modify our Audit Opinion. We draw our conclusion on the basis of the documentary audit evidence that we have obtained up to the date of our Auditor's Certificate. Future events or circumstances may nevertheless result in the Company ceasing to continue its operations.
- We evaluate the entire representation, the structure and the content of the annual financial statements, including the specifications, as well as if the financial statements represents the business transactions and events in a manner that creates a maximally faithful image.

We talk to the Audit Committee about the planned scope and the planned time needed for the audit, as well as about important findings, including any important deficiencies in the internal control system that we detect during our audit.

We also provide the Audit Committee with a statement that we have complied with relevant ethical requirements regarding independence, and communicate with them all relationships and other matters that may reasonably be thought to bear on our independence and, where applicable, actions taken to address threats or safeguards applied.

On the basis of the issues that we discuss with the Audit Committee, we determine which issues were most important for the audit of the annual financial statements for the business year and are therefore particularly important auditing matters. We describe these issues in our Auditor's Certificate unless laws or other legal provisions rule out publication of the issues, or we determine in extremely rare cases that an issue should not be included in our Auditor's Certificate because it is reasonably expected that the negative consequences of such a notification would outweigh their advantages for the public interest.

REPORT ON THE MANAGEMENT REPORT

Due to the provisions of Austrian corporate law, the management report must be examined to check that it is in agreement with the annual financial statements and was issued according to the applicable legal requirements.

The legal representatives are responsible for the preparation of the management report in agreement with the provisions of Austrian corporate law.

We have executed our audit in agreement with the professional principles for the auditing of the management report.
